

Sixth of Series Featuring Jim Killen
The 2012-13 South Carolina Migratory
Waterfowl Stamp & Print Program

“Green-Winged Teal in Orangeburg County”

The 2012 South Carolina Duck Stamp print features Jim Killen’s painting of a pair of Green-Winged Teal and a Golden Retriever with an Orangeburg hunting scene. The 2012-13 print is the sixth in a series commissioned by the S.C. Migratory Waterfowl Committee from nationally acclaimed wildlife artist Jim Killen, already an eight time artist for the state’s Migratory Waterfowl Duck Stamp and Print Program program.

Funds derived from the sale of stamps, art prints and related artwork are used as specified in state law. The program, now in its 32nd year, is administered by the S.C. Department of Natural Resources. Fifty percent of the total revenue from stamp and print sales is transferred to the SCDNR for use in its specified projects. The remainder of funds derived by the sale of prints is disbursed to a nonprofit organization for the development of waterfowl propagation projects within Canada. The projects must specifically provide waterfowl for the Atlantic Flyway and must be able to demonstrate evidence that the projects are acceptable to the appropriate governmental agencies having jurisdiction over the project areas.

- The deadline for reserving guaranteed matching print numbers is July 15, 2012
- The 2012 prints will be available for sale and distribution beginning July 1, 2012 from the publisher and local art dealers
